Parsons The New School for Design Estimate of Student Expenses for 2011-2012

Listed below are minimum estimated budgets for 2011-2012 for a student enrolled full-time at Parsons The New School for Design. This estimate is for full-time tuition and fees for the fall and spring semesters only, and for twelve months of basic living expenses (except where noted). Although adequate, these budgets do not allow for luxuries or additional courses. Students may wish to make arrangements for more money.

Students who have relatives or friends in the New York City metropolitan area willing to provide free room and board (housing, utilities, and food) must submit an Affidavit of Sponsor Providing Free Room & Board in the New York City Metropolitan Area with supporting financial documentation. Documentation showing that a student receives full room (housing) has a cash value of $16,344.00 for 12 months. These students or their sponsor must show an additional $7,308.00 in funds to cover Board, Transportation, and Personal expenses.

Estimated expenses for your program should be calculated at an increase of approximately 4-6% for each succeeding year
